IT/Network Intern

Currently pursuing a degree in Electronic and Telecommunication Engineering. Throughout my academic journey, I have developed a profound interest in Networking, motivating me to seek practical experience and contribute to impactful projects. Backed by a solid foundation in Telecommunication Engineering, I possess strong analytical, problem-solving, and critical-thinking abilities. Moreover, my effective communication and interpersonal skills enable me to collaborate successfully with diverse teams and stakeholders. I aspire to utilize the principles that I have acquired in a real-world context, particularly within the IT industry, aligning with my passion for Networking. Enthusiastically anticipating the prospect of invaluable guidance and mentorship, I recognize the pivotal role that internships play in fostering professional growth and shaping future careers.
